From French Baccalauréat
To Top Business Schools

Lycée Français International de Delhi declared their diploma results for the batch of 2021. The students have outdone themselves with 100 per cent success in the French Baccalauréat.

LFID is a part of a network of schools under the Agency for French Education Abroad (AEFE). The school has recorded impressive performances by the students. Out of all students enrolled for the Diploma Programme from over 40 countries, 75 per cent of students graduated with distinction. The AEFE network welcomes students of more than 80 nationalities; 60 per cent of them are foreigners and 70 per cent choose France to pursue their studies.

The French Baccalauréat certificate is now equivalent to the school-leaving examination certificate issued by the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) or other secondary, intermediate and pre-university educational establishments recognized by the Republic of India. This enables students to advance their studies in both French and Indian educational systems. The French Baccalaureate also makes students eligible for advanced standing credit at universities in Canada and the United States. Additionally, high scorers in the French Baccalaureate are eligible for scholarships at leading universities and world-class exposure.
